

Duane Epele Award

Duane Epele devoted many years of support to the Cajon Valley Union School District and was one of the founding fathers of the San Diego County School Personnel Commissioners Association, feeling the need for greater representation to the California School Personnel Commissioners Association (CSPCA). He served as a school board member from July 1963 to March 1975, and as a Personnel Commissioner from 1976 to 1981 and again from March 1990 to December 1996. He has served as president of CSPCA, and in many other capacities as well. Duane is truly a man to be admired, and one deserving of an in-memoriam established in his honor.
